

When I transfer an existing or create a new management or member account from my organization, when do my AWS account charges begin with Four Points?

Management Account Transfer- AWS requires a 1st of the month cutover from one reseller to another. Four Points will begin to invoice for utilization based on the effective transfer date.

Member Account Transfer – Cutover occurs immediately once the account unlinks from previous reseller to the new program management account under Four Points.